Dear Sir

Your statement that you have no desire to do any injustice whatever. then again about your disposition to meet a man half way etc sounds fairnice but you dont want to meet me half way

Now its simply this.

I returned a confederate half dollar to S.H.&H. Chapman. I may or I may not have registered same. but I am confident that. I sent it back.

Now I also would feel that in the event of me paying you $6.50 xx I would be paying you for something that I had received no value for. Now that would also be too bad to have such a thing happen.

Now I have had much more than $6.50 worth of worry over the confounded thing. and I talked with friends here in regard to the matter. They all say that my proposition was a just and fair one.

Then again, it seems to me, like this that owing to the fact that I have not bought any coins from you in such a long time that it may have a little to do with it

It simply is too bad, that such a trifle should stand unsettled between us.

I am still pleased to stand for half of the cost of the coin, but I do not want to pay you any more than that, and I say again it is unjust for you to expect more

Let us close this matter up and be done with it.

I am sorry that we have been put to so much trouble in the matter, but now that it has lasted so long it can't be remedied. Hoping that we can agree on my terms

Yours truly,

Albert Doherty

Dear Sir: Not that it makes any difference now, but, to satisfy my own peculiar ideas. I enclose your letter and I recall quite plainly the time this letter was received, and while my note does not have any date, to show when the coin in question, was sent back to you

I am more than convinced that the error was yours, not mine

I dont want any money returned, but I do want you to acknowledge the fact that you may or may not be correct
